The recent and continuing rise in the price of farm products has been a material factor in the making of the Republican ticket. It is a fact that the price of farm products has risen in the last few months to a point where it is the highest in the history of the country.

The tariff reformers have been in the front of the movement to reduce the tariff on farm products. They have been successful in many instances, and they are now working for a general tariff reform.

It has been the policy of the Republican party to support the tariff reformers. This policy has been successful in many instances, and it is now being continued.

THE RAUM INQUIRY.

The Commissioner of Pensions Again on the Stand.

MR. COOPER RETURNS TO THE CHARGE.

The Witness Willing to Make a Full Statement, but Objects to Questions too Inquisitorial—The Laugh Turned on Cooper.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 22.—General Raum, Commissioner of Pensions, was again placed on the stand when the House investigating committee met yesterday morning. Representative Cooper, who so unceremoniously left the committee room Thursday because the committee refused to allow him to ask General Raum how much he was worth, was present and conducted the investigation. The commissioner described the details connected with the formation of the refrigerating company in January, 1906. He had paid part of the money to the company due on his stock, and he had a good deal of money at the time he drew a check on the bank of the Republic.

Other questions by Mr. Cooper drew from General Raum a protest that they were too inquisitorial. He declined to say how much of the "Lemon" money he had in the company. He had an article from the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial-Gazette, published in that paper on June 9, 1906, in which it was stated that the charges against General Raum were untrue and were circulated by the "Lemon" money.

Mr. Cooper asked General Raum if the article was prepared in his office or written by him.

General Raum answered in the negative to both questions. He thought he could name the author, but declined to do so.

Mr. Cooper said that he expected to prove that the article had been supervised and authorized by General Raum. General Raum stated, in answer to a question from Mr. Cooper, that he owned a majority of stock in the Cyprian Mining Company—about $200,000 worth—but declined to answer how much he paid for the stock.

Mr. Cooper asked the witness if he had any stock in an enterprise for making smokeless powder, but there were protests and objections to the question.

Mr. Cooper said that he was not asking the question for the purpose of making a charge against General Raum, but for the purpose of showing that at the time when General Raum was in the company, he was not a member of the company.

AWFUL ACCIDENTS.

Two Trains Plunge to Destruction Down Steep Grades.

MANY PERSONS KILLED AND WOUNDED.

Both Trains Smashed Into Kindling, Wood, and the Escape of Any of the Passengers and Crews Little Short of Miraculous.

An Accident on the Reading Road. Reading, Pa., Aug. 23.—Four persons were killed by yesterday's accident, namely: Charles Detwiler, conductor, aged thirty-five; Edgar M. Levan, lawyer, aged forty; Miss Rosa Heiler, aged thirty-two, all of Reading, and Miss Elizabeth Hinkle, aged thirty-two, of Philadelphia.

Five persons were fatally and as many seriously injured, while a large number of others were severely hurt.

The grade to the summit is very heavy and the descent of the case is always rapid. There is a ravine at the place of starting, and just before this is reached on the down grade there is a sharp curve. At this point the accident occurred, the men losing control of the cars. Superintendent DeChart, gives as the cause of the accident the refusal of the brake to work properly.

The Car Sheds Disaster—Another Death. Philadelphia, Aug. 23.—The number of killed by the falling of the car sheds of the Citizens' Passenger Railway Company at Twelfth and Susquehanna streets Thursday evening increased to five by the finding in the debris yesterday morning of the body of John McConnaughy, aged sixteen years, son of St. Louis Hiram McConnaughy.

In consequence of the rumors current that the weak condition of the walls of the depot are as much responsible for the accident as the cyclonic wind-burst, a most rigid investigation is being made into the cause of the catastrophe.

On the Denver, Utah & Pacific Road. Denver, Col., Aug. 23.—In an accident at Lyons yesterday afternoon, three men were killed and five injured. The accident occurred on a steep grade in Lyons, where a train of seven cars and just started down the grade when the engineer lost control of the train and it dashed down the grade until the dump was reached, when it was piled into a mass of debris.

Sunk in a Collision. SALT LAKE, Utah, Aug. 23.—At seven o'clock yesterday morning a collision occurred between the large steel steamer J. H. Wade, down-bound, and the schooner Tasmania, consort of the steamer Caladonia, up-bound, near the shoal in the St. George's Bay. The Tasmania had her port bow open from the collision and in a few minutes in about nineteen feet of water. The wreck will prove a great obstacle to navigation until removed. The Wade is not seriously damaged, but the schooner is damaged on both bows, having struck head on. The Wade is owned and the Tasmania is in ballast trim with 5,000 tons of coal.

Still Hard Around. FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., Aug. 23.—The Hamburg-American packet liner Dana, which ran ashore on a sand-bar outside of Short Beach on Wednesday night, is still fast in the sand notwithstanding the efforts of the tugs to pull her off. She shifted a little during Thursday night while the tide was at the flood and came further ashore. The work of lightening the steamer by discharging part of her cargo into lighters was begun yesterday afternoon, and as soon as this is done a further effort to haul her off will be made.

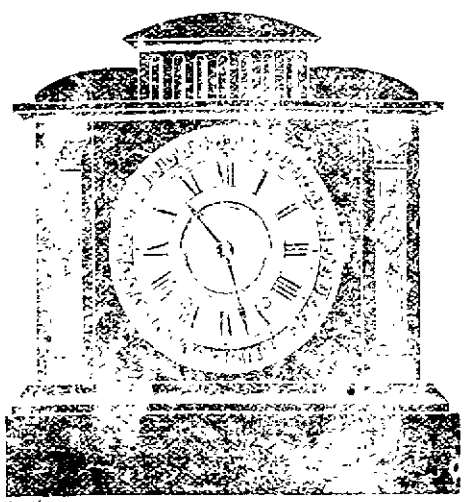

Railroad Employees Organizing. Boston, Aug. 23.—The Herald says the railroad men of Vermont are rapidly affiliating with the Steam Railroad Men's Protective Union. Grand Organizer Burns, of Boston, organized a union with sixty-five charter members at White River Junction Tuesday night, and a union at St. Johnsbury Thursday night. He states that the discharge of members of the Knights of Labor on the New York Central has thoroughly aroused the railroad employees on the Grand Trunk and other roads, and that the men are flocking into their various organizations.

Will Resign. PORTLAND, Ore., Aug. 23.—It is stated that G. J. St. John, general manager of the Pacific division of the Union Pacific, will resign, and he will be succeeded by General Manager McNeill of the St. Joe & Grand Island railway.

THE MASONIC, Old Fellows and G. A. R. union picnic is in progress to-day at Blue Mound. Parish's Military Band from Taylorville is furnishing the music and eloquent speakers will orate this afternoon on live topics.

RECEIVING new fall and winter millinery at Mrs. K. E. BRYNTER'S. 23-1/2.

CALL on C. B. Prescott if you want a real bargain in standard pianos—the Haines, Everett and Sterling instruments.

I expect to remain in Decatur the following winter, having completed the course of study at the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, and secured the diploma of that institution. Will take pupils in Piano, Organ and Harmony. Names may be left and terms at Mrs. R. O. Hamber's millinery store, 125 East Main, or at 734 West Wood street. Yours Respectfully,
Aug 21-dk2w EMILY S. HAMBER.

Buy family groceries and fruits at Hanks & Patterson's store, 143 South Wood street.

Try the new shape Little Rose and Bonquet cigars, clear Havana filled, no artificial flavoring, on sale by all first-class dealers.

Try Grand Opera House cigars, made by Reck & Weigand, are the best in town. 25-1/2.

It will pay you to select family groceries at J. Lytle & Co's store. Assortment complete and all orders promptly filled.

EVERYTHING in medicine from hair tonics to corn killers at Irwin's pharmacy.

SMOKE the old reliable K. & W. cigars. 25-1/2.

SMOKE the "Gem"—no artificial flavor. GRANT CENSING, who broke out of the Franklin street calaboose after having been there a week, was run in again last night on a peace warrant. He is now in the county jail.

THE National colors were adopted by Congress in 1777. The beautiful, rich, creamy color, so desirable for ladies' clothing, can be secured by using Cole's Carbolic Soap. It cleans, invigorates and purifies the skin.

F. W. WESTHOFF is ready to receive pupils in piano, organ and harmony. Apply at C. B. Prescott's, or at 309 East Washington street. aug-6-1/2

You can get the finest grade of Old Wheat Flour by going to Cloyd's and asking for Ellsbury's Best. 21-3

Missed the Train.
Gen. C. W. Parry, Auditor of State, arrived in the city to-day from Springfield, too late to catch a train for Blue Mound, where he is booked to deliver one of his stirring speeches at the Union picnic celebration at that place this afternoon. He paid his respects to the REPUBLICAN office, and while here ordered a buggy from Caldwell's to drive to Blue Mound to keep his appointment. He started off in good time and will reach his destination in time for a late dinner. Gen. Parry will talk on the Soldier; Judge Nelson on the Masonic order, and Elder Weeden, Republican nominee for the legislature in the Taylorville district, will discuss Odd Fellowship.

Stole a Buggy.
When Supervisor C. Ammann awoke this morning he made the discovery that his barn had been entered by a burglar, who got away with his buggy. Later an old buggy with broken shafts was found in the bottom beyond the D. A. Moffit bridge, and it is believed that the party who stole Ammann's buggy abandoned the damaged rig. The officers are working on the case and hope to overhaul the thief. Clinton officers are after the same chap. They have been on his trail and will catch him in due time. He bought the horse he drives but he stole the old buggy at Clinton.

Some Better.
J. Brock Nicholson is reported some better to-day. Dr. Chenoweth had not visited him up to noon, but will probably do so this evening.

HOME FROM EUROPE.
Return of Hon. and Mrs. E. O. Smith from the Old Country.

"E. O. Smith and wife, London, England," is an entry on the St. Nicholas Hotel register, put there by Mr. Smith last night immediately after his arrival from Europe by way of New York and Chicago. The home of Mr. Smith, who lived in Decatur in the early days and still has large interests here, is at San Jose, California. He is now on his way to the Pacific Slope, but will remain in Decatur a few weeks.

Mr. Smith, wife and daughter have been in Europe nearly a year and have visited London, Paris, Rome, Berlin, Geneva and all points of interest. They traveled slowly and have had a very enjoyable journey. They come home greatly refreshed and more in love with free America than ever.

Part of the time the party were with Mr. and Mrs. James Milklin, who sailed for America late and are now in New York, or will arrive there in a day or two. The letters of Mr. Smith published in the REPUBLICAN have given his impressions of the lands and people across the water pretty fully.

Mr. Smith and Mr. Milklin attended a great labor demonstration in London, and were counted among the toilers. Mr. Smith reiterates that he saw Queen Victoria, and that he bowed to her politely, but she failed to recognize him. While in London Mr. Smith paid $8.00 for a sack coat, which fits him nicely. The same coat can be bought in America for about the same money.

Lovington After Quincy.
Arthur B. Wingate, of Lovington, Monticello county, who claims to represent the Grange Detective Agency, of Cincinnati, has written a letter to the clerk of Adams county at Quincy, which has created quite a stir in that city. Mr. Wingate, in his letter, asks for the record of 320 acres of land in the heart of Quincy, which he claims was entered under a United States patent by one John McFarland, and that a legal transfer of the said property was never made. The tract referred to takes in the county and Government buildings, and if the legal right should be made by the McFarland heirs, as insisted by Wingate, there will be an endless litigation in the courts.

In a little off-hand speech at the hall of Knights of Pythias Lodge No. 17 Thursday night, Rev. S. F. Gibb got off following rant effort:

Punning is a joy to the young, and may be indulged in at all seasons, fitted to both winters and summers, and enjoyed by them. Mr. Gibb then permitted no one to cut a shade over the name of it, we will grind out the whole Grist, and if any persons do not like it, we will proceed to Kalamazoo.

The Pythian Sisters will give a social and festival at the residence of Mr. V. H. Shanks in the brick east of the East Park Boulevard, on Friday evening, Sept. 5th. The members of Myrtle Lodge and friends will go out on the Citizens' electric cars and in vehicles.

Sales of Real Estate.
A. T. Risley to W. B. Hunter, deed to 2 acres in 15, 3 east—$600.
W. B. Hunter to C. B. Britton, deed to 2 acres in 15, 3 east—$550.
Hodeman Chappell to A. T. Risley, deed to tract of land in 13, 16, 2 east—$600.
Albert G. Roberts to William J. Hooper, deed to lots 10 and 11, block 1, A. W. Bell's addition to Mt. Zion—$2000.
William H. Davis to heirs at law of J. Chance, quit claim to tract of land in 18 and 19, 16, 4 east—$1.

J. W. TURNER, of the Body Elevator company, yesterday was paid by R. W. Ferguson $50 as indemnity under an accident policy for injuries received July 4, in extinguishing the fire in the clothing of the little daughter of A. F. Gephart.

It is probable that there will be another camp meeting at Oakland Park next month. Rev. Fleming Gray, the colored Baptist minister, is figuring on getting the park and will be assisted by Rev. Tyler, of Evansville, Ind., and other exhorters.

JAMES SMITH, the man caught by the police in the Second ward and held on a charge of burglary, waived examination yesterday before Justice Hammer and in default of $500 bond was sent to the county jail.

SECRET SOCIETY MEETINGS.
MASONIC.
Special communication of Mason Lodge No. 59 A. F. & M. S. this Saturday evening, Aug. 23, at 7:30 p. m. at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Hamner, Sec'y.

DIED.
Ella Beulah Carter, died at 7:30 p. m., August 22, at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hamner, 143 South Wood street, aged 7 years, 4 months and 23 days.
The child was ill with scarlet fever, and was sick but four days.

The funeral will take place from the residence at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

BARGAINS in brushes, combs, hair mirrors, hair curlers, nail brushes, files, etc., at the 22-1/2 WINTER FRONT DRESS STORE.

Going East.
Miss Clara McGinnis, who has charge of the trunking department at Mrs. K. E. BRYNTER'S millinery store, will leave Wednesday for New York, where she will spend some time in the pattern department of one of the largest wholesale millinery houses, copying the latest designs, which will be displayed at their opening. These patterns will be sent on to Decatur, thus enabling Mrs. McGinnis to give her patrons the advantage of the latest styles at lower prices than can be duplicated at any other establishment in the city. 23-1/2

WORTHY PRIZE.
In speaking of the benefit concert tendered J. L. Crane Camp No. 4, Sons of Veterans, by the Fifth Regiment Band, at the Y. M. C. A. hall in Springfield last evening, the Springfield Journal contains the following concerning Miss Pinckard, of Monticello, who participated in the exercises: "Miss Laura Pearl Pinckard, of Monticello, who charmed her auditors so much at the gathering of the prisoners of war of Illinois at their reunion in this city, sang Gumbert's beautiful composition, 'The First Song.' Miss Pinckard has a rich and powerful soprano voice, as well as a pleasing expression when singing. In response to the encore accorded her she sang Robyn's beautiful song 'Answer.' Later in the evening she again sang 'Taps,' or 'Lights Out,' being the selection. Mrs. Lucy Williams acted as accompanist."

ELDER N. S. HAYNES, of Peoria, will occupy the pulpit at the Christian church to-morrow morning, and deliver his very interesting and instructive lecture, "The Roman Clergy and Our Public Schools," in the evening. Competent judges pronounce this one of the best lectures on the platform to-day.

THE Short Line electric street railway is having great fun now. Their track at the corner of Broadway and Cerro Gordo street is taken up and all passengers both ways have to be transferred.

A PARTY of ladies and gentlemen will drive out to Otter Lake on next Tuesday morning and spend the day fishing and picnicking on the banks of this body of water.

At the meeting of the Order of the Eastern Star held last evening Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Cassell, Jr., and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Cassell were taken into membership.

MISS ANNA WALSTON entertained a small party of friends last evening at the home of her parents on North Main street.

F. W. BRINKMEYER has purchased a Union safety bicycle of O. Ewing, manager of the bicycle school.

THE Holmes camp-meeting will come to a close at Oakland Park to-morrow.

WILL O. WARFIELD was the guest of his brother, Chas. Warfield, of the Decatur Lumber Co., yesterday afternoon. He has been engaged to act as superintendent of the city schools at Eureka during the coming winter.

Attorney Marice Lee, the young attorney who has been practicing his profession in this city for several months, has decided to locate in Kansas City, where a special inducement has been extended him.

WENT THROUGH A BRIDGE.

Three Men Seriously Hurt and Railway Property Damaged at Sugar Creek.

The east bound freight train No. 10 with 14 loads, on the Terre Haute & Peoria road at Sugar Creek, near Armstrong, met with an ugly accident yesterday. The trestle bridge over Sugar Creek is 300 feet long and as the train passed over it, five cars at the rear left the track, the cabooses going down at the rear, standing on end in the creek, falling about 18 feet. The section gang had been repairing the track at the west end and one of the rails was out of line as the train approached. The train was going rapidly to make the grade on the east side. The engine passed over all right as did also all but the five cars at the end. The first of the five left the track and the others followed in rapid succession until the west end of the bridge was wrecked and the five cars were in the creek or hanging in fragments from the bridge.

At the time of the accident there were three men in the cabooses—Conductor James Russell, W. C. Langbridge, of New York, representing the Cambridge Valley Seed Gardens, and a gentleman from Columbus, Ohio, on his way home. On the caboose platform was Carley Reeves, the train brakeman, who bravely remained at his post, trying to save the cabooses, but it went down and with it the occupants of the car. It was all over in a few seconds. Those in the car were hurled to one end with great force. Mr. Langbridge, who weighs 180 pounds, fell heavily on his back and Conductor Russell fell on top of him. The Ohio man had his spine skinned, but otherwise he was unhurt. Mr. Langbridge had three ribs broken, his head cut and his left hand sprained, besides being bruised more or less about his hips, legs and arms. He did not realize the full extent of his injuries. He got right up and with true business instinct, put one of his valises out of the caboose window. The other valises were too badly demoralized to receive immediate attention. Carley Reeves, like Mr. L., fared badly. He was hurled off the platform and was seriously cut about the head and breast. Conductor Russell received several bruises. The Armstrong village doctor was summoned to the bridge, but Langbridge says he was so badly rattled that he did not seem to know what to do. Late in the evening the injured men were brought to Decatur, where Dr. Cass Chenoweth attended them. Mr. Langbridge was able to walk but he remained at the depot lying on a cot until the east bound Wash train arrived when he took a sleeper for Albany, New York. Every year this gentleman spends ten weeks in this territory taking orders and he lacked two weeks of finishing his trip when he was injured. He has traveled for many years but this is the first time he has ever been hurt. He is in the Commercial Travelers' company, and will receive $25 a week benefit while his broken ribs knit together at Albany. General Manager I. H. Burgeon, Supt. A. Stevens and Auditor Hobart, of the T. H. & P. road, looked after the comfort of Mr. Langbridge and saw that he got away in good shape.

The damage to the railroad property will not exceed $1000.

Superintendent Stevens left for Sugar Creek last night on a freight train and had a long ride to reach the scene of the wreck. He got there at 2:30 this morning, and is now engaged in having the bridge repaired. The necessary timbers were procured at Springfield. The bridge is comparatively new, and the accident would not have occurred had the rails on the road been in line.

Charles Jones was the engineer in charge of the locomotive.

PETROLEUM'S RISE

STORY OF THE DISCOVERY AND GROWTH OF THE OIL FIELDS

The Land on Which the First Well Was Found Was Traded for a Cow--Many Men Were Ruined Before Fortune Was Made--Names of Some Early Well Owners

Very few people are cognizant of the magnitude of the petroleum business in this country. It is a business that has grown from a few wells in the early days to a vast industry that now employs thousands of men and consumes millions of barrels of oil daily.

Active operations began in 1858 when Col. Drake of New Haven was employed to sink an artesian well for the village of Drake, which had used the famous springs in 1854 from Drake's Well.

A few years before the first well was sunk in the oil fields, the first well was sunk in the oil fields, the first well was sunk in the oil fields, the first well was sunk in the oil fields.

When wells multiplied in 1860 the petroleum trade began to be recognized as a business worth some thing more than a mere curiosity, but its magnitude had not impressed itself on the public mind.
